

3rd European Pain Day

Niche indications: one step beyond

October 5th, 2017

Schloss Rahe in Aachen-Laurensberg

* During the event pictures and video recordings will take place only for internal use

Agenda

Time	Subject	Content	Speaker
9:00	Welcome	Why the 3rd EU pain day. Objectives	Mark Field Head of Pain Innovation Unit. GRT
9:15	Failed Back Surgery Syndrome.	Definition. Epidemiology and clinical presentation. Current management. Unmet needs	Carlos Villas University Clinic of Navarra Juan Perez-Cajaraville Madrid Hospitals
9:50	Failed Back Surgery Syndrome. A highly painful and limiting disease	The patient's perspective on current management, limitations and quality of life	Lamia Zehni Patient FBSS
10:15	Discussion		All Moderator: Sally Crowe
10:45	Coffee-Break
11:00	Headaches: migraine, cluster headache, tension-type headache, chronic headache	Definition. Epidemiology and clinical presentation. Current management. Unmet needs	Michel Lanteri-Minet CHU Nice
11:45	Lunch
13:00	Cluster Headache	The patient's perspective on current management, limitations and quality of life	Ewa-Kalina Tyminski AFCAVF
13:30	Discussion		All Moderator: Sally Crowe

Agenda

Time	Subject	Content	Speaker
14:00	Endometriosis Pain	Definition. Epidemiology and clinical presentation. Current management. Unmet needs	Katy Vincent University of Oxford Sylvia Mechsner Charite University Hospital Berlin
14:35	Endometriosis Pain	The patient's perspective on current management, limitations and quality of life	Bianca De Bie Endometriose Stichting
15:00	Discussion		All Moderator: Sally Crowe
15:30	Coffee-break
15:45	Vulvodynia: a disease with no identifiable cause	The payer's perspective	David Nunns Nottingham University Hospitals NHS Trust
16:15	Discussion		All Moderator: Sally Crowe
16:30	Parallel round tables with speakers		All Moderator: Sally Crowe
16:50	Summary and Highlights	One more step forward	Klaus D. Langner CSO
17:00	Closure and informal "get together"	Refreshments. Interactions. Conversations.	All